DEDICATION OF THE OWL

Mrs. Jean
Brooks

The 1984 Owl Staff respectfully and with pride dedicate this annual to MRS. JEAN BROOKS. All students at OHS know Mrs. Brooks and have come to love and admire her for her friendship she extends to all. Not only is she the bookkeeper of our school (affectionately known as "Mrs. Moneybags"), but she runs the bookstore efficiently as well. Students view her as a friend, a confidante and a mender of broken hearts. She is a wonderful mainstay at OHS, one that will be so hard to replace. Congratulations, Mrs. Brooks, on an honor so well deserved and so long overdue.

IN-SCHOOL SUSPENSION BY Tim Dempsey

I'm sitting in this desk inside this little din. I can't see out and you can't see in.

The floor is green,
The walls are cream,
And the smell is keen.
But the teacher is not all that mean.

I'm watched like a hawk.
I'm given lots of work.
I'm swatted if I talk.

If I skip and miss my stay,
They will give me another day.
I'm not having what you might call a ball.

I'm just trying to pass time,
So I've counted every brick in the wall.

SENIOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

One of the many memories of our senior year is the Senior Christmas Party. The children's smiling faces will long be remembered. The seniors had lots of fun with their new friends. In some instances you couldn't tell the kindergarteners from the Seniors!! When the time came, we found it hard to send them home.

CLASS PARTY — GET DOWN!!!

The Senior Class Party was a long awaited event! Always held after class night, each senior was ready to let go and get down!!! Everyone was uptight after class night, so what a welcome relief from suits and gowns. Held at Chester Frost Park, everyone had a terrific time — and anyone can tell by looking at these pictures!! It was after midnight before the last crowd of seniors reluctantly left the park.

Class officers present flowers to Mrs. Yerger for their appreciation in her making class night a success.

1984 JUNIOR-SENIOR PROM

May 12, 1984, was a magical night for most Juniors and Seniors. This was the dance of the year — many had long awaited this night. Tuxes were rented, making sure the trim on the shirt matched their date's dress. Prom dresses in every color imaginable swirled across the Imperial Ballroom at the Choo-Choo to the tunes played by Young and Pretty, an excellent band to accompany a very special event. Scott Bevil and Angie Eldridge, sweethearts, were crowned Prom King and Queen. Everyone left with a brandy glass commemorating perhaps the last prom many will ever attend. Thanks to the Junior Class and sponsors for making this a treasured memory for many of the seniors.

"DON'T LET IT END"

OUR EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Birgitta was very active at our school. She played on the varsity volleyball team and ran track. She did very well in track, but had to miss the Regional meet because she went to New York for a week. All the students at OHS wish the very best for Birgitta when she returns to Sweden to her old school. We'll miss her and hope that she continues to do as well as she did here. She was not only inducted into the Beta Club, but also the National Honor Society. Birgitta says that OHS is very different from her school in Sweden — she's not used to all the sport activities and the pep rallies. But she did say that she has enjoyed being at OHS this year and plans to come back to the United States very soon. We love you, Birgitta. Always remember the stay at Ooltewah High School and never forget your friends!

Birgitta Nilsson

Dear Friends,

I'd like to thank you for your friendship and your help and to let you all know how wonderful this experience here at OHS has been for me. At the very beginning, during the first weeks of school, I was so confused because everything is so different from my school in Italy! But then, with the friendly and warm help of the teachers, and all the students, everything went all right and I felt very comfortable.

The school here, in America, is very different from the kind of school we have in Italy. In American schools, beside the time you spend studying, you have also time for recreation, for sports, for a variety of different activities; all things that, in my opinion, make your type of school the ideal one. OHS seems to me more like a big family rather than a school, where everybody knows each other and the teachers are so caring and so much involved with the students in sports, clubs, and different activities. This relationship seems more like a kind of partnership. I learned a lot of new and interesting things from all my classes and I found students and teachers really friendly, helpful and very, very nice. This experience as an exchange student has been a wonderful one. It is something that I will always have with me, through my whole life. I won't ever forget OHS and all of you.

I love you,

GRADUATION 1984

GRADUATION DAY — MAY 23, 1984

It was a day to look back and think about those four years in high school and be proud of all the accomplishments . . . it was a day to look forward to the future and perhaps feel a little scared of what may lie ahead . . . but it was also a day of recognition, a day of appreciation, a day of celebration. Ooltewah High School is a much better school now because of the contributions of this graduating class . . . yes, it was certainly a day in everyone's life that he will never forget.

The 1983-1984 National Beta Club had an outstanding year. During Homecoming Week its members sold Spirit Ribbons. We provided fruit baskets for the needy at Thanksgiving and toys and clothes for Christmas. February saw the Beta Club members hard at work answering phones for the St. Jude Radio-Thon. And once again we sponsored another great Sadie Hawkins Dance featuring Chris Bolton and Kim Parks as Lil Abner and Daisy Mae. Thanks to Mr. Rogers and Miss Russell we had a very exciting and memorable year!

The Student Council is perhaps the backbone of the school. Each class is represented by an elected student. The Student Council this year raised well over $2,000 in canned food and over $1,900 in money to help the needy at Thanksgiving. They were also in charge of Spirit Week for football and basketball. And the activities were definitely exciting and fun. They also published a new handbook for all incoming freshmen and new students.

The Student Council not only helps the school, but the community as well, as evidenced by the pictures on this page. It was a tremendous undertaking, but a wonderful success. Many families were so happy due to the Student Council and the students at OHS.

DRAMA CLUB

Jim Bartoo breaks in to steal presents.

The police (Terry Casey, Birgitta Nilsson, Kristen Johnson) come to investigate the burglary.

The mystery is solved — all the orphans are entranced by the many presents.

Dewayne Davis (the father) thanks the police for solving the crime.

The Drama Club saw little action this year — it was difficult to get everyone together to rehearse, select a play, build props, etc. Nevertheless, they did perform for the Christmas party and did an excellent job. "The Boy Who Christmas Forgot" was loved by all who saw it. Bartoo was excellent as the little boy as well as the rest of the cast members.

The 1983-1984 Spanish Club had an excellent year. The Spanish words had everyone in total confusion. The students supported the club with all ambitions to make it a big success. The sponsor Miss Janet Geitner has done a great deal of work to make the Spanish Club successful. She is the only Spanish teacher at Ooltewah and a great sponsor for the club.

Mr. Joel Denton — Band Director

The Band had another great year in '83-'84. They competed in three Marching Band Contests finishing in second place twice. They also competed in the ETSBOA State Concert Band Festival and received a superior rating in sight reading. This rating is represented by a state plaque, the first in Ooltewah's history. The Band also received a Superior rating at the Brainerd Invitational Concert Band Festival. The Band was invited to attend the Festival of Champions in Panama City, Florida. They performed excellently at the festival. It was the first national festival the Band has attended. We would like to express our deep appreciation to this year's Seniors during the last three years, their hard work and leadership have helped the Band win over 50 trophies and awards. Thanks again Seniors!

OFFICERS — Marie Poe — Guard Captain; Clay Smith — Equipment Manager; Kris Parsons — Band Captain; Jim Bartoo — Drum Major/Director's Assistant; Leanne Buckner — 2nd Lieutenant; Tracy Byrd — Secretary/Treasurer; Sharon Graves — Guard Captain. Not Pictured: Cherri Jobe, Eric Chapman.

Words cannot express what Jim Bartoo has meant to the Ooltewah High School Band. Jim has served as Drum Major for three years. During this time, he has consistently received superior ratings and Best Drum Major Awards. He has been an example for all Band Members to follow. His leadership, dedication, and hard work are deeply appreciated. We wish Jim the best of luck in the future and give him our sincere thanks for a great three years!

We would like to express our appreciation to Kim for another outstanding year of twirling. She once again received many superior ratings at our contests. Kim will be returning next year for her fourth year as an Ooltewah High School Majorette. Thanks Kim for all of your hard work.

This was an exceptional year for the Colorguard. They received a Superior Rating or competed for Best in Class at every band contest. The guards' greatest moment was a Superior rating at the Tri-State Marching Band Festival when they beat Tyner's Colorguard. We would like to thank our three Tri-Captains for all their leadership in making this an outstanding year!

There's basically only one word that can accurately describe these vivacious young girls and that's — SPIRIT! Through the cold, the rain, the snow, these girls were always there cheering all our teams to victory. And when we didn't have a win, these girls never let up yelling — proving to the community and the school that they are really concerned and dedicated about their spirit. Many thanks for a super job!
